Faculty Experience

Do you have direct experience and/or knowledge in the country to which you will be travelling? Please explain in detail (i.e. led students to this location before, prior travel to this location, speak the language, research is focused in this area, etc.).

If you do not have direct experience and/or knowledge, please explain how you will collaborate with local on-site experts to make use of your discipline-related knowledge. If you do not have experience in the country you are travelling to, OSA strongly recommends utilizing an affiliated third party (Custom Programming by a study abroad provider company, a partner university, a language school, etc.).

Program Information

What is the name of the program you are proposing? (For marketing purposes, we suggest a short name that includes location and course topic.)

Program's U.S. Departure Date:

Program's U.S. Return Date:

Advertised program dates used by OSA are as follows: Departure date = date students will depart the U.S. in order to arrive abroad for the first day of in-country activities Return date = the date the program officially ends and students will return to the U.S. Spring Break is scheduled 3/11/24 - 3/15/24

Location (List all cities and countries to be visited):

Why is this location ideal for teaching this course abroad? How does it enhance the learning objectives?

What is the current Travel Advisory Level? <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/traveladvisories.html>

Please list the level for each location that will be visited, as well as the corresponding reason(s) for each rating. Travel to locations with an Advisory Level of 3 or 4 will require page 6 (Supplemental Information - Elevated Risk Travel Advisory Destination) of this document to be completed. MSU will not approve travel to a Level 4 location unless that rating is based solely on the COVID-19 pandemic. (Example: France = Level 4 due to COVID and Level 2 due to Terrorism and Civil Unrest)

Study Abroad COVID Quarantine Plan The coordinating department of the study abroad program is responsible for accommodating students and faculty leaders that may test positive during their study abroad experience. This includes making all arrangements and covering costs (medical, food, lodging) beyond what is covered by the included insurance. If a faculty member will not be staying with a quarantined student they must demonstrate how they will be cared for while in quarantine. Please describe your COVID quarantine plan in detail.

Program Description This should be an engaging 4-5 sentence description of the program that will be used on OSA marketing materials and the online application for your program. We suggest you use this as a way to highlight your program to entice students to participate.

Program Structure Please select from the following activities that will be included in your program and include any relevant details:

Internship opportunity:

Visit/tour with local company/organization:

Faculty Responsibilities

As the faculty program director, my responsibilities include:

1. Planning and implementing the program and associated course(s)

It is the responsibility of the faculty member to make all program arrangements. This includes all logistics such as booking lodging, buses, faculty airfare, student airfare (if included), facility rental, tours, excursions, guest speakers, etc. Note that study abroad provider companies can be used to make logistical arrangements for your program. OSA encourages the use of the following provider companies as we work with them regularly and they specialize in customized study abroad programming – WorldStides/ISA, CEA, AIFS, and API. Links can be found on our website.

2. Completing all University requirements regarding purchase, lease, or service agreements

University Policy requires all contracts and agreements, including those with study abroad/travel/tour companies, hotels, conference centers, bus companies, etc. to be signed by the Director of the Office of Procurement and Contracts. More information can be found at: <http://www.procurement.msstate.edu/contracts/index.php>. You cannot prepay or make deposits without a contract and pre-approval from the Office of Procurement and Contracts and IHL. If you are unsure if this requirement pertains to your program, please contact the Office of Procurement and Contracts for clarification. Be sure to read the contract carefully to ensure the Application Cycle you selected will enable you to fulfill all contract requirements, especially as they pertain to payment.

3. Recruiting students

Active faculty involvement is the most effective method of student recruitment (i.e. speaking to classes, emails to targeted groups of students, holding interest sessions, social media, etc.). In addition to the faculty director's efforts, OSA will produce standard promotional content for each program, hold two Study Abroad Fairs, maintain online application and self-enroll informational Canvas course, promote programs on our social media, speak to classes upon request, and conduct individual and group advising sessions.

4. Reviewing student applications through OSA's online application system

Faculty directors will review each application and either accept, reject, or waitlist based on eligibility. Instructions for accessing and navigating the system will be sent by OSA.

5. Assisting OSA in getting students to complete all application requirements

OSA does not give students permission to register for their course(s) until all application requirements have been completed. We request the help of faculty directors in communicating with students to encourage them to complete all requirements.

6. Communicating frequently with OSA and prospective students

Communication throughout the planning, recruitment, pre-departure, abroad, and returned stages is vital to a successful program.

Additional Information Please feel free to submit additional information or pictures to assist in the approval process and/or to provide assistance to OSA in marketing your program.

OSA maintains a self-enroll informational Canvas course for students interested in studying abroad to research programs and find answers to general study abroad questions. Each faculty-led program is highlighted in the Canvas course and we will reach out to you to provide media (video, voice-over PowerPoint presentation, photo slideshow, etc.) to supplement the basic information that is include for every program; dates, cost, course, link to application, etc.

Responsibilities of the Department Program Fees will be transferred from OSA to the departmental account indicated on the budget. The department will make all payments associated with the program as well as travel arrangements for the faculty director(s). Any budget overages, including those due to COVID quarantines described on Page 2 will be the responsibility of the department.

I understand and accept the above responsibilities.

Supplemental Information - Elevated Risk Travel Advisory Destination

This page is required if any location (city, country, or region) the program will be traveling to is rated above a Level 2 Travel Advisory by the U.S. Department of State Bureau of Consular Affairs Travel Advisory system <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/traveladvisories/traveladvisories.html>. The advisory report for a country may also indicate varying levels of advisories for specific locations or regions within a country. For example, a Level 2 country could have cities or regions with Level 3 or 4 ratings.

MSU will not approve university travel to a Level 4 location unless the rating is based solely on the COVID-19 pandemic. Faculty-led study abroad program travel to elevated risk locations when the rating is based on anything other than the COVID-19 pandemic is discouraged.

Please list the level of each location included in your program, as well as the corresponding reason(s) for each rating. If the rating differs between cities within the same country, list each location included in the program separately. (Example: France = Level 4 due to COVID and Level 2 due to Terrorism and Civil Unrest)

Why would travel to an alternative location not provide a comparable educational experience?

Summarize the risks associated with travel to the proposed location(s) with an elevated risk Travel Advisory:

What are the ways in which you as the faculty director can mitigate these risks? How will you ensure that your students are properly prepared for the inherent risk of travel to this location?

The decision of whether to allow travel to an elevated risk location is within the sole discretion of University administration. If approved, all MSU faculty and staff traveling will be required to sign the "Assumption of Risk and Release Form – International Travel to Destination with Elevated Risk" when completing their international travel paperwork. Additionally, all students will be required to sign the "Student Assumption of Risk and Release Form – International Travel to Destination with Elevated Risk" distributed directly to the students by OSA.
